

Nonviolence in the 21st Century

Methods and examples of nonviolent actions to meet the challenges of today and tomorrow

An online event to commemorate the International Day of Nonviolence and the 152nd anniversary of the birth of Mahatma Gandhi.

Saturday October 2

10am-12 noon Eastern Time USA / 4-6pm Central Europe Time / 7:30-9:30pm Delhi

Simultaneous translation in English/French

Register

About the event:

The United Nations has declared October 2 to be the International Day of Nonviolence. Nonviolent methods and action are important to protect human rights, prevent destruction of the environment, support peace processes, end armed violence and secure justice for individuals and communities around the world. This webinar will provide an introduction to the philosophy behind nonviolence, its necessity for human survival, the range of methods and applications of nonviolence and some recent examples of nonviolence in action.

Speakers:

Dr Rajiv Vora (India). Chairman at Swaraj Peeth Trust: A Gandhian Center for Nonviolence

Ela Gandhi (South Africa). Co-founder of the Gandhi Development Trust and Grand-daughter of Mahatma Gandhi

Jamila Raqib (USA). Executive Director of the Albert Einstein Institution

Michael Beer (USA). Director of Nonviolence International

Vanda Proskova (Czech Republic). Vice-Chair of PragueVision Institute for Sustainable Security

Aminatou Haidar (Western Sahara). Co-founder, Sahrawi human rights movement. Right Livelihood Laureate 2019

Kasha Jacqueline Nabagesera (Uganda). LGBT advocate and Right Livelihood Laureate 2015

Alyn Ware (New Zealand). Member of the World Future Council and Right Livelihood Laureate 2009

More information at the event facebook page.

Co-sponsoring organizations:

